

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

$1.00 IN THE COUNTY
STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

(Outside of County)
ONE YEAR $1.50
6 MONTHS .85

Sidney Spivey.

Sid Spivey, age 58, a well known and highly esteemed citizen of near Hayenburgh, this county, died at his home Tuesday morning, Feb. 7th at 2:30 o'clock. His death was due to a second stroke of paralysis. He suffered the first stroke about 18 months ago, from which he had never fully recovered.

He was a member of the Christian church, and was liked by all who knew him.

Funeral service was held Wednesday, conducted by Bro Andrew Craighead. The remains buried in the Billie West graveyard.

Deceased is survived by his wife, and eight children as follows: Mrs. Mattie Wilson, Mrs. Addie West, Mrs. Hattie Witcher, Mrs. Callie Mosley; Walter, Edwin and Odel Spivey, all of whom reside in that community.

Mrs. Narsis Martin.

Mrs. Narsis Martin, wife of John Martin, age 69 years and four months, died at her home here Sunday morning, February 5th, about 4 o'clock of heart trouble. She had been under the treatment of a physician for the past year, but was able to go about most of the time.

Funeral service was held Monday afternoon, conducted by Bro. John Fox, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Stafford cemetery four miles north of Gainesboro.

Mrs. Martin was a devoted member of the Christian church, having united with it at the age of 15 years. She was a good woman and was loved by all who knew her. Besides her aged husband, she leaves an adopted son about 9 years old and one sister.

Mildred Lee Vanhooser.

Mildred Lee, the 5 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sampson Vanhooser, died at her home on Harican Creek Friday night, Feb. 3, after being ill only a few hours. The remains were interred in the Johnson cemetery on the north side of Cumberland river Saturday afternoon.

Besides her parents she leaves two sisters and four brothers, and four of them have been seriously ill with pneumonia for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Vanhooser have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Mrs. Vina Poston.

Mrs. Vina Bailey Poston, age about 68 years, died at her home in the sixth district Sunday and was buried in the Big Bottom community Monday.

Mrs. Poston was one of the wealthiest citizens in that district and has numerous relatives and friends. She is survived by a daughter, Sissie, and a sister, Mrs. Abbie Spivey.

Luke Dennis is having some of the dirt removed from his lot on the north side of the square and will immediately begin the erection of a nice brick building, which will be occupied by Dennis & Tinsley, a local mercantile establishment. Will Trisdale, a hntling farmer of this place, has taken charge of the excavation, and is pushing the work as rapidly as possible.

J. M. Morgan, Sr. Answers Last Roll Call.

Job M. Morgan, Sr., age 88 years, four months and one day, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of the upper Cumberland section, died at his home on Roaring river, three miles northeast of Gainesboro Sunday afternoon, Feb. 5th, at 5 p. m., following a paralytic stroke which he suffered two or three days preceding his death.

Funeral service was held at the home Monday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. K. A. Early. Interment took place in the Gore cemetery near the home.

Mr. Morgan was born near Gainesboro, November 11, 1833, and had spent the most of his long and useful life in and near this place. He was a veteran of the civil war. He volunteered in the army in May, 1861, and was a member of the Eighth Tennessee Infantry, which was organized by Wm. Gore, it being the first company that was made up in Jackson County. After serving as a private several months he was transferred and promoted to Captain of A. Q. M. of the 8th Tenn. Infantry, and was afterward appointed Transportation Quartermaster. He served faithful throughout the war and was paroled at Washington, Ga., May 11, 1865.

He was Clerk and Master here for one term, having been appointed to the office in 1891. Prior to this, he was engaged in the practice of law and was considered one of the ablest of the local bar. He was a consistent member of the Christian, and was devoted to his family. Everybody who knew him liked him.

Besides his wife, who was Miss Pine Gore before her marriage, and who is now passed her 87th birthday, he is survived by the following children: Mrs. W. H. Haile of Cookeville, Mrs. W. F. Sadler, D. C., and Miss Ella Morgan of Gainesboro, and Job M. Jr., of Aberdeen, Miss. He is also survived by a brother, Sam Morgan, of Cockeville, and two sisters, Mrs. Nan Richmond and Mrs. Lucinda Ballard, who reside in California.

Notice to Auto Owners.

The Acts of the Legislature 1919 and 1921 recites, that all persons must, before running Auto, Truck & Etc. on any road or street, obtain from the County Court Clerk 2 numbers plates to be placed on the front and rear of said auto, truck or motorcycle, and any person failing to do this shall be deemed guilty of a MISDEMEANOR. All this comes under the Inquisitorial power of the grand jury, which, convenes the first Monday in March.

All County Court Clerks are required and have to make monthly reports, and as I do not desire to report any person for failing to obey these auto laws, but I am aware that a number of the people are not familiar with the auto laws, hence I give this notice. Please call and get your Numbers, as it is my official duty to enforce these auto laws. February 8, 1922.

G. Lee McGlasson,
Clerk.

Beachboard Bond Over.

Sam Beachboard, who shot and killed John Cooper of Butler's Landing, at the former's home, in Tick, Sunday morning, Jan. 29th, was given a preliminary hearing here Saturday before Esqs. R. A. Montgomery and A. J. Pharris, and was bound over to the March term of court.

W. F. Hawkins, who was arrested on the charge of aiding and abetting in the killing, was tried at the same and was acquitted.

LOCALS

If the people who have taken Tanlac were to form a line of march in single file, this grand army would reach clear across the American continent from New York to San Francisco and extend over 3,000 into the Pacific Ocean.—Anderson & Haile, Gainesboro, Tenn. Advertisement.

Get your "morning" bacon, sliced and ready for the skillet, at M. P. Bailey & Son, South side, (adv)

There was a representative crowd, from all parts of the county, in town Monday and the local merchants report a splendid business.

Sam J. Boyd of Gladdico, transactee business in Gainesboro Saturday.

Little Joe Hargis, of Granville, is visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Pate.

Canned meat, canned vegetables, canned fruits, we have them all in the best known brands, and at prices that will please you. M. P. Bailey & Son, (adv)

Vivian Reeves is convalescent from a very serious attack of appendicitis.

W C Heady, after a brief stay here, has returned to his home in Spencer.

Mr. and Mr. Job Morgan of Aberdeen, Miss., were called to Gainesboro on account of the death of Mr. Morgan's father, J. M. Morgan, who died at his home 2 miles north of here Sunday night.

When you buy your groceries from us you save money. M. P. Bailey & Son. (adv)

Tanlac strengthens the nerves and brings back the normal state of health through its effect on the appetite and nutrition of the body. Anderson & Haile, Gainesboro, Tenn. Advertisement.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gore, Thursday night Feb. 12, a fine 11 pound boy. Both mother and son are getting along nicely. Mr. Gore, who is a prominent young attorney here says, that hereafter his services cannot be had for a song.

When you entertain, you want the best of eats, teas and coffees. You can get 'em at M. P. Bailey & Son, for the least money. (adv)

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Strode have recently moved to the Jackson residence on the west side of town. Mr. Strode is a practicing attorney here and opened offices in the rear room over the drug store of Anderson & Haile.

Remember if it is groceries you want, you can find them at M. P. Bailey & Son. (adv)

Mrs. John Steele and children, of Okahumpka, Fla., have been the guests of her brother and sister, B. M. Haile and Mrs. Joe Maberry the past week. They were en route home from New Mexico, where they had spent 18 months on the account of Mr. Steele's health. They stopped over in Persimmon, Ky., several days to visit her sister, Mrs. G. B. Isenburg. Mrs. Steele was formerly Miss Kate Haile and has been living in Fla., for 20 years.

J. R. Gist, who suffered a stroke of paralysis about three weeks ago, is reported very feeble and no hopes is held out for his recovery. Mr. Gist is 74 years old, and is one of the leading Justices of the Peace of Clay County, having been a member of that body for the past 25 years.

Jas R. Burris, well known far of Roaring river is dangerously ill with pneumonia. He is reported some better today (Friday) and his physicians are hopeful of his recovery.

Blood Hounds Trail Men Charged With Saw-up Lumber.

Bedford Hix and Jim Hix who live near John Haile's store in the first district of this county, were arrested Monday afternoon at their home on a charge of an alleged theft and destroying several hundred feet of new lumber belonging to Mrs. Clementine Hix, a widow, who lives in that community. The men were arrested by Sheriff Spurlock and brought to Gainesboro and made bond for their appearance before R. A. Montgomery, J. P., Saturday at 10 A. M., when they will be given a preliminary hearing.

Mrs. Hix, prosecutor in the case, had her house destroyed by fire several weeks ago, the cause pointing strongly to incendiary. Shortly after her house was destroyed Mrs. Hix began preparing for the erection of a new one and by hard work had assembled the material on her yard. Saturday night, near the midnight hour, Mrs. Hix on investigating a noise in the yard, discovered that a large part of her lumber had been carried to the public road and sawed into short pieces, a cross-cut saw being used. The guilty parties made good their escape, but left a plain trail behind. Mrs. Hix came to town that night and notified Sheriff Spurlock, who accompanied her home. After viewing over the grounds it was decided to call the blood hounds.

Early Sunday morning Joe Maddux of Buffalo Valley was called. Arriving here near the noon hour Mr. Maddux and his hounds were accompanied to the scene by Sheriff Spurlock. The dogs took the trail at the pile of saw-up lumber, following it down the road a distance and through a field and on to the home of Jim Spurlock's. Here the trail lead through the house and out the backdoor. Information was given there that the two Hix's had been at the house during the night. From there the trail lead to the Hix home. On arriving at the Hix home the hounds trailed to two beds and laid down and refused to go any farther. A little girl in the home gave the information that her father had sleep in one bed and her uncle in the other. The refusal of the dogs to trail farther was easily accounted for when it was learned that the men had left the home in a car. They returned sometime Monday and were arrested. Both are men of families, and are sons of "Black" John Martin.

Mrs. Hix is a widow and has several children. Her husband died last year.

Give nature a chance. Take Tanlac, nature's own medicine.—Anderson & Haile, Gainesboro, Tenn. Advertisement.

To Our Many Friends

We desire to announce to our many friends and former customers, that we are again in the GROCERY business in Gainesboro. We are occupying the new building between the garage and printing office, which has just been completed.

A special invitation is extended to the citizens of the town and county to visit our store and see the fine lines of groceries we carry. We are especially anxious for the house-wives to call, as we had in mind the problems they have in preparing the meals, when we purchased our groceries.

Special care was taken in selecting our stock and only the best and most reliable brands of canned goods (all from the canneries last year) were bought. You will find in our shelves the very best of Breakfast foods, Rolled Oats, Puffed Wheat, Cream of Wheat, Corn Flakes, Hominy Grits; Breakfast Bacon, Shoulders and Hams; Coffees and Teas; Confectioners sugar, Domino Tablet Sugar; Swan-down Cake Flower and Butter Krust Flower; Bottled and keg Pickles; Spices of all kinds; Jellies and Jams; Evaporated Peaches, Apples and Prunes; All kinds of Wafers and Cakes; Apple Butter; Salid Dressing, Cream Salid Mustard, and Meat Sauce; Sweet Peppers; Canned Fruit, Vegetables and Meats of all kinds, and lots of other staple groceries too numerous to mention here. In fact we have most anything in the grocery line you want, and remember they are FRESH and the quality will satisfy.

Our line of Apples, Organs, Lemons, Bananas, Grapes, Cabbage and Potatoes are the best and freshest.

For the convenience of our customers we have installed a Meat Slicer at a big cost. When you want the best of Bacon we have it sliced to the thickness you desire.

Our motto is Quality, plus Courtesy, Honest Service. Remember our goods were bought for cash at a discount, which enables us to sell them accordingly. Get our prices before you buy. Free delivery in town. Phone orders given prompt attention. Don't fail to call us when you need anything in the grocery line.

M. P. Bailey & Son

Gainesboro's Leading Grocery, South-side

Honor roll primary department week ending Feb 3rd.

1st Grade—(C) Ather Gwinn, Bailey Pharis, Fred Roberts, Buster Roberts, Marshal Whitaker, Martha Lou Smith. (B) Howard Anderson, Phillip Anderson, Harlin Young, Raymond W. Reeves, Perry F Vanhooser, Vallie Stafford, Zora Lee Waddie Margerie Mabrey. (A) Edna Ellis, Georgia Kinnard, Louise Roberts, Mattie C. Roberts, Hazel Roark, Christene Raines, Faye Smith, Lassie York Neoma Whitaker, Joseph M.

Brown, Rex Loftis, Ernest Stafford. 2nd Grade.—Joy Gailbreath, Ada Sue Quarles, Irone Smith, Edna Whitaker, James Draper Edward Gailbreath, Chas F. Hawkins Clarence Gwinn, Harvy Henson, Marlin Mabrey, Meadows Montgomery, Donald Poston, Bruce T. Settle, Lando Stafford, Harry Tardy, Raymond Kinnard, Jack Young. Mrs. Maude McCain, Teacher.

INSURANCE

Fire, Lightning, Wind-storm.

Strong Companies

Farm Property A Specialty

Lee McCartney, Gainesboro, Tenn.

Fordson Tractors Reduced

$2 3 0 . 0 0

New List Price of Tractor F. O. B. Detroit

$ 3 9 5 . 0 0

Price delivered to your farm $440

All Farw Implements For Use With the Fordson Reduced in Proportion.

DRAPER & McCRAWLEY CO.